

Call for nominations President-Elect

At the ASM Annual General Meeting to be held in Hobart in July 2017, the Immediate-Past President of the Society will step down from the ASM Executive Committee. In accordance with the ASM Constitution, nominations are now invited for the position of President-Elect of the Society, to take office in July 2017 following the Annual General Meeting. The President-Elect will hold office until the next Annual General Meeting, to be held in July 2018, at the conclusion of which he or she will become President of the Society for two years.

Candidates for election to the position of President-Elect shall be Honorary Life Member, Financial Fellow, Member or Senior Associate Member of the ASM and be proposed and seconded by Honorary Life Members, Financial Fellows, Members or Senior Associate Members of the Society. Nominees should also provide a short statement as to how they might contribute to the Society.

Nominations must be received before the 30th June, 2017. Please send completed nominations by email to the ASM National Office (admin@theasm.com.au).

Nomination for the position of President-Elect of The Australian Society for Microbiology Inc

We the undersigned wish to nominate _____ of _____
for the position of President-Elect of The Australian Society for Microbiology

Proposer (FASM / MASM / SASM / Honorary Life Member)

Name _____

Signature _____

Secunder (FASM / MASM / SASM / Honorary Life Member)

Name _____

Signature _____

I accept this nomination for the position of President-Elect of the ASM

Name _____

Signature _____

Date _____

Statement by nominee (no more than 100 words):